Kimberly S. Mabry

Interfaith Relations Officer

Kimberly S. Mabry is the Interfaith Relations Officer at IM Houston, where she has served for seven years. She has a passion for areas where community and faith come together.

Mabry earned a bachelor's degree in management from Texas A&M University in College Station and a Master of Divinity from Perkins School of Theology at Southern Methodist University. While at Houston Methodist Hospital, she earned her Certificate of Clinical Education & Chaplaincy Residency.

Before entering ministry, Mabry owned Impact Marketing & Design Company for seven years. She then spent seven years on staff at St. Paul's United Methodist Church, working in Christian Education, Evangelism, and Social Justice Ministries. She went on to serve the United Methodist Church in extension ministry at Houston Methodist Hospital. There, she created and served as lead Project Manager of the Faith Health Initiative, a collaboration between Houston Methodist Hospital and the Texas Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church that created wellness opportunities for underserved communities and recently hospitalized patients.

Mabry is an Executive Board Member of Family Promise of Clear Lake, serves on the Boniuk Institute Interfaith Leadership Advisory Board at Rice University, and is a member of the Professional Advisory Committee for the Clinical Pastoral Education Program at MD Anderson Cancer Center. She has been involved in many community initiatives, including Texas Impact, the Faith Leaders Coalition, and the Institute for Spirituality and Health.

Mabry and her husband, Mike, have been married for 32 years. They have two sons, Miles, 27, and Braden, 24, and a new daughter-in-law, Libby, who married Miles on August 30, 2025. Mabry loves traveling, gardening, and spending time with family and friends antiquing and enjoying good food.
